

(Circular)

Treasury Department,

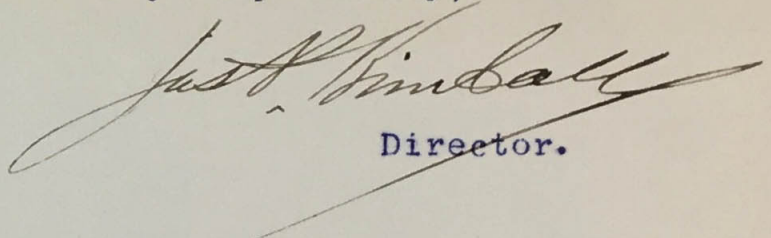

BUREAU OF THE MINT,

Washington, D. C., September 4th, 1885.

Sir:

Hereafter instructions will be given the Superintendents of the several Mints, not later than the first day of each month, as to the approximate relative proportions of the several denominations of gold and silver coin to be struck during the month.

Very respectfully,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read "Gustav Franklin", written in dark ink. The signature is fluid and extends across the width of the text block.
